ArtCan launches a vibrant new collection of contemporary art from member artists at their new Hub in Angel Central Shopping Centre from 7th July.

Co-curated by Kate Enters, Founder of ArtCan, and Maz Weineck, the Vibrancy exhibition will include a wide spectrum of styles, mediums and topics from this exciting international group of artists.

Kate says: “After offering a moment of STILLNESS in Angel Central we are now looking to invigorate the space with a vibrancy of work that feels contemporary and engaging on a very different level. We are excited to present this collection of bold and inspiring work and bring a slice of summer to Islington.”

Maz says: “The theme of Vibrancy in this exhibition comes through in so many ways – from bold, colourful works to portraits that suggest vibrant personalities. The diverse styles, mediums, and interpretations on display reflect the richness and vitality of our ArtCan community and I’m excited to show this energy at the ArtCan hub.”

The exhibition space has been gifted to ArtCan through charity The Artist’s Window, which works to transform empty, redundant and depressing shop spaces into attractive, visible and interesting places with a purpose, where local people can enjoy and be inspired by art.

Opening Hours:

Wednesday - Saturday, 12 - 5pm
